HappyStack® Eco

Brand new for 2010 we are launching the HappyStack® Eco to address the growing need for schools to recycle materials and to teach environmental awareness as part of the curriculum. HappyStack® Eco is part of Gratnells HappyStack® range which has been specially designed for nursery and primary schools.

Suggested Marketing Copy

The new 'green' HappyStack® Eco from Gratnells is ideal for organising your recyclable materials and teaching the next generation the importance of taking care of the planet. Complete with six deep and sturdy green trays supplied with six A5 clear stick-on label holders, the HappyStack® Eco makes recycling child's play.

The HappyStack® Eco is not only green in colour, the wood is made from sustainable material and the green plastic ends are made from 100% recycled materials. All the trays are fully recyclable too.
